

Subject: Updated Guidance from ESD

Earlier this morning, the Syracuse Builders Exchange received further clarification regarding Empire State Development's guidance specific to performing work on projects deemed to be "essential". The additional guidance states:

"Construction in support of essential businesses is permissible, but only with appropriate social distancing and cleaning/disinfecting precautions. If those cannot be met, the project should be postponed."

Earl R. Hall
Executive Director